The Blurring Lines of Community

Today's Task

- Broaden our perspective of the effectiveness of technology in community engagement & crime prevention.
- Identify technology tools that are current (for the moment)
- Begin looking forward (Instead of playing catch up!)

"Identify the future that has already happened"

"Old" Tech Tools

The Usual Suspects:

- Email
- Static Websites
- Forums/Blogs
- On-line News Sites

The Past

Scientists from the RAND Corporation have created this model to illustrate how a "home computer" could look like in the year 2004. However the needed technology will not be economically feasible for the average home. Also the scientists readily admit that the computer will require not yet invented technology to actually work, but 50 years from now scientific progress is expected to solve these problems. With teletype interface and the Fortran language, the computer will be easy to use.

The Past

- We are reactive to social disorder issues
- Attitude of mistrust of technology by safety professionals
- More hindsight than foresight:
 - 1994 Email has no place in the office
 - 1996 Internet has no place in the office
 - 1998 eCommerce is too dangerous
 - 2002 IM is never going catch on
 - 2005 Social Networking sites are just a fad
 - 2006 Google maps will not be a usable tool or concern
 - 2008 YouTube is just a passing fancy for kids

What is Web 2.0?

Web 2.0 is the move toward a more social, collaborative, interactive and responsive web. It is a change in the philosophy of web companies and web developers, but more than that, Web 2.0 is a change in the philosophy of society as a whole.

What's In It For Me?

- Build/establish relationships utilizing another medium
- Find resources and services locally and quickly
- Capture, share and mobilize on creative ideas
- Encourage threaded discussions
- Break current cliché's within communities
- Improve collaboration
- Enrich community messages

How Does This Help?

- Direct line "of speak" to community
- New communications strategies
- Blur the lines of "Community"
- Enhance "connection" to others
- War Gaming
- Build relationships outside the expected

Be Creative Use The Tools

- Community Information/BlockWatch
 Alerts & fan outs by IM/Twitter
- Direct feedback to agencies and services
- Community activities and invitations to ALL
- Community information updated in "Real Time"

Become a part of the "community", Not an outsider!
